Getting ready on the set of "Livin' the Good Life"

The Beverly Council on Aging's long running "Livin' the Good Life" show continues into its 6th year of production. Louise Fennel and Carmella Viteritti have begun taking on hosting duties. Recent guests include Beverly Assistant Fire chief Peter O'Connor and producer Lincoln Williams.

Al Torsey directs under the watchful eyes of BevCam staff and BCOA crew

BevCam has been screening web site developers over the past few months. We have an active project to redo our site, which hasn't had a facelift in probably 9 years. Thanks to all the Board members who shared their time to participate in the process, especially Lee yaffa, who spearheaded the project.

Recent new members include Mark Jalbert, percussion instructor at Beverly High School. Lincoln Williams is a new member who wants to produce a show called "88 Lives", documenting people in their senior years. Scott Baerenwald is a new senior member.

New members under the Pilgrim Church organization membership include: Doug MacDougal, Jasmine Myers, Theodore Nelson, Genvieve Peterson and Eli Donis. They produced a video PSA promoting a theater play piece appearing locally.

New individual member Kathryn Bradford has begun work on a new series called The Final Frontier.

Ethan Finlan, Noah Britton and New Michael Ingemi are new members under Aspergers Are Us; they are intending on producing a new show soon.
