

BevCam Executive Director's Report
For the Month of December 2012

January 9, 2013

PRODUCTION AND OUTREACH

BevCam was on hand at Gillette Stadium on December 1 as the Beverly High football squad won its 2nd Super Bowl title in 3 years. Technical coverage was handled by Steve Madore, Robert Dokes and volunteer Mark Layman on camera. Volunteers Alex Salucco and Jay Norton provided the play by play and commentary.

Cast and crew on the set after a successful taping of another "Debuts" show

Award winning BevCam producer Patrycja Tobis rocked the house with a raucous holiday taping featuring the New England Boston Gospel Ensemble. Her popular "Debuts" series has garnered a number of awards due to its high quality production and interesting guests.

Walt Kosmowski is returning with his "North Shore Journal" show, featuring interviews with interesting people from around the area. On December 18, he hosted the owner of Cinema Salem, Paul Van Ness.

BevCam has greatly expanded its coverage of Beverly High School athletics over the past year. This has been due in large part to the help of many students and other volunteers, and the support of the coaching staffs of the various teams under the direction of Director of Athletics Jim Coffey. The success also owes a great deal to the dedication and hard work of BevCam's Robert Dokes.

In December, BevCam taped the Beverly High School Winter concert in the auditorium. Staff and volunteers, including Denny Dart and David Constantine, provided crew support for the taping.

Darcy McDonough interviewed Coach Dan Bauer and several of his players for her "BHS Now" series, which appears on Channel 22. They discussed the successful season of the football team, ending in a Super Bowl championship.
