

BevCam Executive Director's Report
For the Month of January 2016

PRODUCTION AND OUTREACH

City Clerk Wes Slate administers the oath of office to Mayor Michael Cahill

On January 4, BevCam taped the City Inauguration ceremonies in the Beverly High School auditorium. Mayor Michael Cahill, City Council and School Committee members all took their respective oaths of office.

The Beverly Council on Aging is now in its 10th year of taping the popular “Livin’ the Good Life” program. The series has offered informative topics and engaging guests since 2007.

Bob Hobbs interviews a guest on the set of the “Livin’ the Good Life” show

The members of the band “Peacework” rock out in the BevCam studio

Producer Brian Thompson scored another knockout on his “Live Around the Studio” show. His guests were the band “Peacework” who rocked the studio with 60’s era hits as well as some of their own compositions.

Fred Hammond was back in the studio on January 19 to tape another show in his “Reflections” series. His guest was the eclectic local artist Tony Ziegler.

Matt Greenberg and Kim Allyn do some final adjustments before cameras roll

Robert Dokes gives some last minute advice to students before taping

The students in the Beverly High School media department continue to produce outstanding programming for Channel 22. Some of the new shows this semester include “The Perspective”, “The BHS Variety Hour” and “The Robbie and Maggie Show”.

BevCam staff were out and about during January performing outreach activities on behalf of the station. Several of us attended the NSA (North Shore Access) meeting January 20 at the Cape Ann TV studios, and the Mass Access state meeting on January 22. ED Walt Kosmowski attended the Greater Beverly Chamber of Commerce annual retreat on January 13. He is also a member of the newly-formed Cabot Advisory Committee, and a member of the City’s Economic and Community Development Council.