

BevCam Executive Director's Report
For the Month of April 2016

PRODUCTION AND OUTREACH

On the set with volunteers from St. John's Episcopal Church in Beverly

On April 6, Walt Kosmowski welcomed a group of volunteers from the St. John's Episcopal Church to his "North Shore Journal" show. This group is involved with Project NuDay Syria which collects needed clothes and school supplies that are sent to refugee children in war-torn Syria.

BevCam taped the annual meeting of the Essex National Heritage Area on April 14. The event was held in the auditorium of Newburyport City Hall.

A large crowd attended the ENHA annual meeting in Newburyport

Host Bob Murphy during a light moment with the Monserrat College of Art team

The Beverly Rotary Club staged a "Family Feud" competition based on the popular TV show. The tongue-in-cheek fundraising event was held at the Danversport Yacht Club.

A workshop on Strategic Planning was conducted at the Mass Access Conference

On April 29th, BevCam staff and BHS interns attended the Mass Access Spring Conference in Canton, MA. We had a chance to attend workshops and revisit with our colleagues in the Access TV world.

Gerry Guilebbe and Tim Smith produced and hosted a show called “Music-4-R-Vets”. Their special guest was country music performer Ricky Lee, who performs in patriotically-themed music shows.

Chris Harvey adjusts a mic on country singer Ricky Lee before taping

Fred Hammond lectures before an appreciative audience in the Sohier Room

On April 4, BevCam taped Fred Hammond as he gave another of his popular presentations on Beverly history at the “Monday Morning” lecture series in the Beverly Public Library’s Sohier Room.

Pedlar Bridges continues to bring interesting guests from all walks of life to his “Road Poet’s Studio” program. His delightful mix of music, conversation and poetry makes for a relaxing show.

Matt Greenberg and Kim Allyn give last minute advice on the set before taping