

BevCam Executive Director's Report
For the Month of August 2016

PRODUCTION AND OUTREACH

Elliott Margolis and Gail Burke pose with their first place award

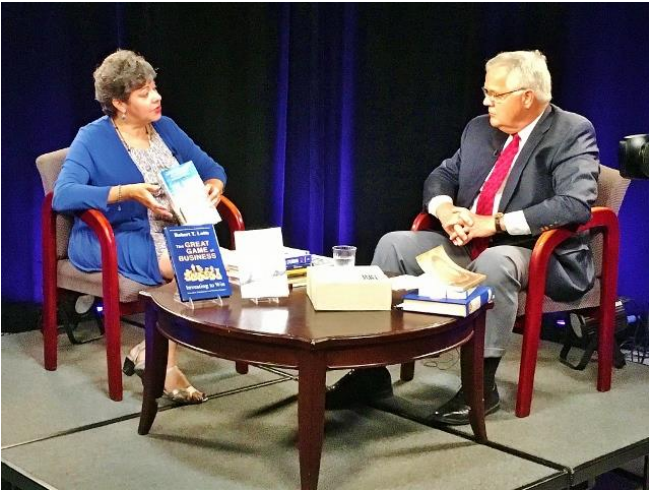

Emcee Jimmy Tingle presents a winning plaque to BHS graduate Allie Clancy

At the Alliance for Community Media annual conference in Boston, BevCam and its producers won 5 first place awards. Elliott Margolis, George Binns and Gail Burke won in the Government Profile category for their show “What’s Happening”. BHS media students won first place in the following: for Animation, Laina Meagher for “The Left Over Cookie Dough”; in Community Events, Emily Auday and Kayla Ostrowski for “World of Difference”; in Public Service Announcements, Allie Clancy for “Child Abuse Prevention and Awareness”; and in Spiritual/Inspirational, Emily Auday won again for her “Self Portrait” video.

State and local officials took part in Farmers Market Week events in Beverly

On August 8, state officials came to Beverly’s Farmers Market to declare Massachusetts Farmers Market Week. An on- location North Shore Journal show covered the event, marked by speeches and proclamations and food tasting.

The Greater Beverly Chamber of Commerce continues to tape its series show, “Voice of Business” with host John King. The show features interesting guests discussing today’s business issues and best practices.

John King on the “Voice of Business” set with guest Kate Victory Hannisian

Bev Cam was on hand at Lynch Park throughout the duration of Homecoming, taping all the exciting events... Tiny Tots Day, Lobster Fest, Senior Day, Lip Sync as well as all the musical groups playing in the bandshell.

A large crowd settles in for the annual “Lip_Sync” extravaganza at Lynch Park

Parisella chats with Mgr Bob Mezzetti and Commission Chair Bill Mahoney

On August 26, Jason Parisella took his “Jason’s in the House” show on location to the Beverly Regional Airport, to chat with Airport Manager Bob Mezzetti and Airport Commission Chairman Bill Mahoney.