For the Month of October 2016

PRODUCTION AND OUTREACH

ACM members renew friendships and talk shop during a lunch break

On October 27, BevCam attended the Alliance for Community Media (North East) annual regional conference. We won 9 awards at the Annual Video Festival. First place plaques went to: Emily Auday for “Self Portraits” in the Spirituality category; Laina Meager for “Left-Over Cookie Dough” in Arts & Theater; and Julia Perry/Ben Ingelson for “Drunk Driving Prevention” in PSA/Short Program.

The local US Coast Guard Auxilliary regularly conducts boating safety presentations for young audiences. BevCam accompanied Bob Amiro, Chief of Prevention of the First District Region, and “Coastie”, the talking tug, to a meeting of Cub Scouts at the Dane Street Church.

Fred Hammond and BHS Principal Betty Taylor review old photos and news articles

Fred Hammond continues to tape his popular series show, “Reflections”, with a mixture of in-studio and on-location venues. On October 12, Fred hosted new acting Beverly High School Principal Elizabeth Taylor and reminisced about her career and family.

Richard Mullen on the set with Phil Coupe talk renewal energy

New producer Richard Mullen has gotten a good start on his series program “Go Green”. On October 3, his guest was Phil Coupe of Revision Energy who discussed the benefits of alternative and renewable energy sources.

BevCam regularly attends the Beverly Community Council meetings. On October 13 we taped a panel discussion on local community resources/organizations that are available for first-time job seekers.

The “Livin’ the Good Life” crew prepares for a taping in the control room.

The Beverly Council on Aging has been taping their series “Livin’ the Good Life” now for about 10 years. They are one of our longest running shows. New BCOA volunteers eagerly participate in helping produce the show.
