

BevCam Executive Director's Report
For the Month of September 2016

PRODUCTION AND OUTREACH

Peddler Bridges receives his Hannah Award from BevCam ED Walt Kosmowski

On September 19, BevCam held its annual members meeting in our studio. Presentations were made by several producers. The highlight of the evening was the presentation of Hannah Awards to deserving volunteers, community leaders and producers.

On September 15, the Greater Beverly Chamber of Commerce sponsored a Legislative Breakfast at A&B Burgers. Speaking were Governors Councilor Eileen Duff, State Rep Jerry Parisella and State Senator Joan Lovely.

BevCam documented the Legislative Breakfast activities on downtown Cabot Street

BevCam captures the action during the Beverly vs Gloucester game at Hurd Stadium

The fall football season got underway at Hurd Stadium during September with 3 straight wins by the Beverly High Panthers. BevCam plans to tape every game and broadcast home games live as well as streaming them on our website.

The annual Harborfest, sponsored by the Beverly Harbor Management Authority, took place on a beautiful Saturday afternoon at Glovers wharf. Marine related exhibits, a magician, band music and a free raffle were enjoyed by all.

BevCam interviews Harbor Management Authority ED Paul Earl.

On September 12, Sandra Lawson taped a “Get Your Garden Growing” show on location with beekeeper Anita Deeley, who installs and maintains bee hives at various locations on the north shore.

Examining the progress of bees working honeycombs from a local hive

Zac Currier and Heidi Ushakoff with Peddler Bridges on “Road Poet’s Studio”

BevCam’s own Zac Currier and Heidi Ushakoff were guests on the “Road Poet’s Studio” show with host Peddler Bridges. Zac talked Jeeps and other off-road vehicles, and Heidi read her original short stories.