

BevCam Executive Director's Report
For the Month of June 2015

PRODUCTION AND OUTREACH

Matt Greenberg zeroes in on the speakers' podium during graduation ceremonies

On Sunday June 7, BevCam aired the 2015 graduation ceremonies from the BHS fieldhouse. We broadcast the event "live" and also streamed it live on our web site. Many thanks to our staff and the volunteers who helped make it happen.

BevCam taped the Mayor's Symposium on Senior Living on June 3 at the Beverly Council on Aging. A Legislative Panel and a Service Sector Panel gave presentations and answered questions from the audience. State AARP director Michael Festa gave the keynote address.

Walt Kosmowski introduces Mayor Mike Cahill, BCOA's Mary Ann Holak, and Senator Joan Lovely

Awards presentation by the Academy of Motion Picture Arts and Sciences

A BevCam crew accompanied Media Teacher Joanne Lloyd to Emerson College in Boston on June 18 for an awards presentation by the N.E. Chapter of the National Academy of TV Arts and Sciences. BHS Media students Emily Auday and Allie Clancy won First Place awards.

Walt Kosmowski talks with Amanda Hynes of the Beverly Arts District (BAD) at Arts Fest

On June 20, downtown Beverly was the site of the annual Arts Fest, sponsored by the City and Beverly Main Streets. As in past years, BevCam taped the festivities and interviewed vendors and members of the public.

Todd Randall of the North Shore Frogmen produced a show featuring a US Coast Guard simulated helicopter rescue at sea. The event was held off White Beach in Manchester-by-the-Sea on June 25, and sponsored by the Wounded Warrior Project.

A simulated Coast Guard aerial rescue off White Beach in Manchester

BevCam attended a Beverly Community Council meeting at the Lynch Park Carriage House on June 9. We also attended a Greater Beverly Chamber of Commerce leadership breakfast in Tupper Hall at Endicott College.

BevCam's outreach efforts and search for new producers continue to be productive. Our membership reached an all-time high of 285 in June.