

PRODUCTION AND OUTREACH

On January 2, BevCam covered the inauguration ceremonies for elected municipal officials that was held in the High School auditorium.

Producer Bob Butterworth has been very busy of late keeping up a robust taping schedule for his show series "Senior Moments?"; here with City Clerk Wes Slate.

BevCam attended the annual Board of Directors retreat and planning session of the Greater Beverly Chamber of Commerce.

Beverly High media students Josh Bates, Danielle Lovasco and Alex Bloomer on the set of the series "Tuning In", produced by Lovasco, Mia Carbone and Megan Marsh.

Andi Freedman has started producing a new series called "Local Music Now", featuring bands from the North Shore area, Shown above..."Gala"

"Livin the Good Life" welcomed Merrimack College Masters students Amy Gothing and Kya Roumimper, on the set with the host Louise Fennell.

Producer Peter Stewart showcased the singing talents of three local sisters on his “I’ve Got Music in Me” series.

Producers Chuck Kiwacz and Robert Dokes tape another “Get Your Geek On” podcast, which has attracted a large following.

BevCam ED Walt Kosmowski with State Senator Joan Lovely, who was named “Legislator of the Year” by Mass Access at their annual meeting.

BHS media alum Carissa Angelo continues her entertainment career with frequent returns to tape in the BevCam studios.