

BevCam Executive Director's Report
For the Month of June 2017

PRODUCTION AND OUTREACH

Andi Freedman interviews one of the many artists showing their wares

On June 17, downtown Beverly was filled with wall-to-wall booths with hundreds of artists showing off their specialties during the Annual Arts Fest, sponsored by Beverly Main Streets. Large crowds enjoyed the weather and festive atmosphere.

Bob Butterworth has begun producing and hosting a new series show called “Senior Moments”. He plans to feature expert guests to discuss a variety of topics of interest to seniors.

Bob Butterworth and Kaye Hapshe of SeniorCare enjoy a laugh in the BevCam studio

A drone's eye view of graduation 2017 at Hurd Stadium

On Sunday, June 4, Beverly High School held graduation ceremonies for the class of 2017 at Hurd Stadium. BevCam covered the festivities and aired the proceedings “live” on Channel 22.

BevCam tapes the Waterfront Resiliency presentations at the Carriage House

On June 10, the Beverly Planning Department held another session on the City’s Waterfront Resiliency Plan at the Lynch Park Carriage House. Consultant BSC Group gave a series of presentations on the local effects of rising ocean levels.

BevCam was on hand as the Beverly Community Council held another in its series of workshops at the Carriage House. The panel discussed community gardening and locally grown produce.

Moderator Sarah Bartley introduces the expert workshop panel

Congressman Seth Moulton addresses a packed house at the Cabot Theater

On June 24, Congressman Seth Moulton held another in his series of Hometown Meetings in Beverly at the Cabot Center. A packed audience got to ask questions of the freshman legislator.

John Maihos, Host of the “Kiwanis Conversations” show, interviewed Greg Luzitano and Jeremy Funke of Striving Artists about their upcoming production of “Hamlet”.

Kim Allyn adjusts John Maihos’ mike before a Kiwanis Conversations show