

PRODUCTION AND OUTREACH

During the November elections, we provided an opportunity for candidates to address the voters with messages taped in our studio

BevCam is a member of and often tapes the Beverly Community Council meetings which feature informative panel discussions

School Superintendent Steve Hiersche started taping a regular series of shows on Channel 22 featuring school district related topics and guests

BevCam taped the Essex National Heritage Area's annual meeting held at the Charles Flint Library in Middleton, MA

Nino Lombardi is in his third year of taping the popular "Color by Nino" show

In a broadcasting first for Beverly HS sports, BevCam began airing varsity wrestling matches

BevCam attended the Alliance for Community Media North East meeting in Falmouth, MA

Beverly High School media students hold a pre-production meeting in our studio

Darlene Louf, host and producer of the "Stand Strong" series won the America's Miss pageant

"What's Happening" continues to produce informative and oftentimes controversial shows

A highlight of every year is our annual meeting where producers vie for the coveted Hannah Awards

BevCam tapes Beverly Chamber of Commerce events Like the Fall Gala, Business Awards and Showcase