

PRODUCTION AND OUTREACH

New Producer John Tamilio taped his first show "Frames of Reference" with City Council President Paul Guanci as guest

On April 4, BevCam taped the annual meeting of the Essex National Heritage Area at Crane Castle in Ipswich

Beverly Chamber's "Voice of Business" host John King brought in several local business owners as guests.

Student Producer Cody Corelli taped messages from BHS teachers for a "Be Better, Be Best, Be Beverly" PSA

BevCam covered a City sponsored workshop on Coastal Sustainability held at the Beverly Golf and Tennis Club

On April 1, BevCam joined other Mass centers for a workshop and press conference supporting local access TV

Jason Parisella took his “Jason’s in the House” show on the road to interview Andrew DeFranza with Harborlight Community Partners

On April 22 we welcomed two Beverly High media students, Dea Rami and Lily Clark for their Senior Internship

After a brief hiatus, BevCam welcomed back Beverly’s most famous artist Nino Lombardi for a “Color by Nino” taping

The indefatigable team producing “What’s Happening” continues to tape programs and win awards

BHS alumni and former media students Will Petersen and Danielle Lovasco dropped by to tape a musical number

On March 29, BevCam attended the installation of Dr. Kurt Steinberg as the new President of Montserrat College