

PRODUCTION AND OUTREACH

On June 14 BevCam attended the annual MassAccess meeting held at the Hilton Conference Center in Norwood

The Beverly High School class of 2019 held its graduation ceremonies at Hurd Stadium on Sunday, June 2

BHS grad and American Idol finalist Angie Miller, performing now as Zealon, stopped by and recorded a PSA

Beverly's Mayor comes in regularly to tape more shows in his series "City Scene with Mayor Mike Cahill"

The Beverly Community Council held a workshop on the state of local media in which BevCam's ED Walt Kosmowski took part

Beverly's most famous artist Nino Lombardi expanded his repertoire by singing some classic tunes for our bulletin board

Andi Freedman has expanded her production activities to include a podcast called "Health Chat" with Dr. Alyssa Handler

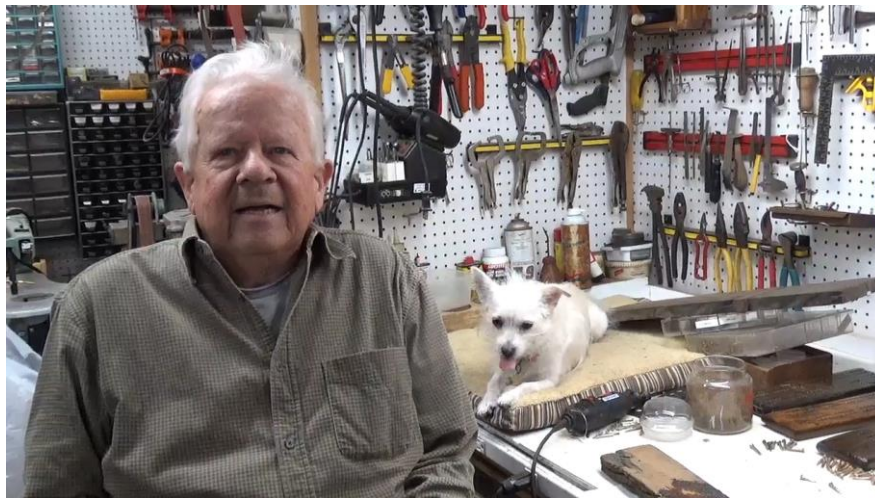

Our studio crew including Kim and Matt prepare the talent to tape another "Voice of Business" show with John King

BevCam frequently tapes a portion of the Beverly Rotary Club meetings which feature some very interesting speakers

BevCam's Zac Currier spends a lot of time in the control room doing the technical directing for many of our in-studio tapings

The "North Shore Journal" is producing a series on Duggie Russell, Beverly's Renaissance Man, featuring his many hobbies, avocations and creative endeavors